

Media Advisory

January 25, 2006

Comox Valley seniors get refresher training on driver safety

(Courtenay, B.C.): To help Comox Valley seniors stay safe on the road, a mature driving workshop will be presented on Thursday, February 2nd at the Florence Filberg Centre. The workshop is designed to be self-evaluating and allows mature drivers to refine their driving skills to allow them to stay on the road as safely as possible.

- What: Mature Driver Workshop
This program is sponsored by the Ministry of Community Services, the Union of BC Municipalities (UBCM), BCAA Traffic Safety Foundation, the City of Courtenay and the Vancouver Foundation.
- Who: Honorable Ida Chong, Minister for Community Services will speak at the luncheon between 12 – 1:30 p.m.

Wayne Treleaven will be the workshop facilitator. Wayne is a retired RCMP police officer from the Langley Detachment active in traffic safety, both throughout his career and into retirement.

The workshop is fully subscribed and is expecting 80 participants.
- When: Thursday, February 2, 2006
Workshop: 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon
Luncheon: 12-1:30 p.m.
- Where: Florence Filberg Centre
411 Anderton Avenue
Courtenay

Media are invited for lunch between 12 – 1:30 p.m. To reserve lunch or for more information on Mature Drivers Program visit BCAA Traffic Safety Foundation's website: www.tsf-bcaa.com

-30-

Editors note: for further information, please contact:

Linda Farrell
Manager, BCAA Courtenay Sales Centre
Tel: (250) 703 2328 ext. 2300
Email: linda.farrell@bcaa.com

Allan Lamb
Executive Director, BCAA Traffic Safety Foundation
Tel: (604) 297-2151, Cell: (604) 230-6159
E-mail: allan.lamb@tsf-bcaa.com